3 Future Industries

Focusing on scalable markets to establish the next stage of growth momentum

Electric Vehicles

- Strategic Partnership: Acquired a 50% stake in Mitsubishi Electric Mobility, forming a strategic alliance in automotive equipment
- Overseas Customer Project: Customer unveiled EV model for AUS and NZ, with deliveries starting this year

Digital Health

- AI Healthcare: Introducing agentic AI and physical AI with medical centers
- Smart Laboratory: Completed laboratory automation with Taiwanese healthcare institutions
- Expanded Applications: Developing mobile nursing carts and advancing AI long-term care field validation

Robotics

- Manufacturing Deployment: In-house robots deployed on AI server production lines
- Robotics Intelligence Platform: Integrating data and AI model training to drive learning and optimization
- Robotics Industrialization: Established Futekang to accelerate mass production of embodied AI robots

3 Core Technologies

Strengthen key independent technologies and increase product added value

AI

- AIDC: Partnering with NVIDIA on next-gen AI infrastructure in Asia-Pacific, first to introduce 800VDC
- Autonomous AI Models: Enhanced FoxBrain's understanding of local knowledge, ranking No. 2 in sovereign AI benchmark

Semiconductor

- Presence & Capacity: Building OSAT plants in India and France; 8-inch fab utilization near full capacity
- Technology & Products: SiC samples delivered to European OEMs for 800V platform; automotive MCU in mass production

Next-Gen Communications

- Satellite Technology: Second-gen Pearl twin satellites demonstrated inter-satellite link communication
- Product Integration: Covering communication modules, phased array antennas and terminals
- End-to-end Presence: Integrating key technologies across satellite bus and ground communications

Progress in 3 Major Smart Platforms

To become a global leader among AI platform providers, driving a cross-industry intelligent ecosystem through hardware-software integration

Smart Manufacturing

- Platform Build-out: Genesis platform to be delivered by year-end; won an international AI innovation award, with trial operation planned for December
- On-site Application: AI agents accelerate production line deployment and improve efficiency

Smart EV

- Automotive Systems: EEA developed for a Middle East OEM customer has entered mass production preparation
- Platform Evolution: Integrating smart cockpit and driving to shorten AI model training cycles

Smart City

- Field Validation: CityGPT advancing 13 use cases in Taiwan
- Overseas Collaboration: Supporting Bac Ninh Province, Vietnam in launching a 5-year smart city development plan
